The Horse That Paid His Toll.

Many of the older residents of this section remember the late Dr. John Warner, of New Milford, and will appreciate this little story. When Dr. Warner was a student at Yale he used to come home Saturday nights and return to New Haven Mondays. That was before the days of railways, and as stage coaches did not leave New Milford Monday for New Haven young Warner used to mount his father's horse and ride to Yale on horseback. There were several toll gates on the route, and at each Warner would pay the return toll for his horse.

Arriving at Yale he would affix to the bridle a card bearing these words, "Please not stop this horse." The sagacious animal would jog along homeward, invariably reaching his stall at New Milford all right. The toll takers got to know the horse, and he was never interrupted. On Fridays the horse would be started alone to New Haven with a small pouch attached to his saddle in which was the exact change for the tolls. Each toll taker would take his toll, and the horse would trot along, reaching Yale in the evening. This practice was kept up until the young doctor was graduated.—Danbury (Conn.) News.

Reform in Men's Dress.

"A Business Woman" writes to protest against the agitation of dress reform for women, upon the ground that women's dress is in no need of reformation, and to propose a dress reform for men. She wants to know why men's trousers should not be cut off at the ankles; she wants to know if there is comfort in a shiny shirt front or a stiff collar—the growing prevalence of flannel, silk, cheviot and unstarched linen answers nay; she asks why men should stuff a yard or two of superfluous cotton cloth into their trousers, instead of wearing shirt waists as the little shavers do; she shoots the hat of man, so to speak, with a condemnation of its stiffness.

Sensible men will welcome the thought of an effort to reform their dress in the direction of comfort and convenience. But our hopes are damped somewhat by the memory of the fact that, throughout the ages, when women were the architects of men's shirts, there was never known a shirt that fitted.—San Francisco Argonaut.

How Some Men Waste Time.

The train stopped at a little town. A commercial traveler, dealing in groceries and tobacco, got off; a crate of live chickens was put on and the cars started again. The stopping of a train was no rare sight in that village, for it happens two or three times every day. The people had no welcome for the commercial traveler, no tears were shed over the departure of the chickens; yet on the station steps I counted forty men and boys who were there when the train came in—farm boys, who ought to have been at work in the fields; village boys, who might have been doing something somewhere, every interest of economics and aesthetics alike calling them away from the village and off to the farms. Two men attended to all the business of the station. The solitary passenger went his own way. The rest were there because they had not the moral strength to go anywhere else. They stood there on the station steps, embodied ghosts, dead to all life and hope, with only force enough to stand around and gape.—David S. Jordan in Forum.

Destruction of Birds by Railway Trains.
An English exchange has recently called attention to the destruction of birds and insects by railway trains in motion. The front of a locomotive is frequently covered with dead insects, and sometimes one can see upon it the marks of blood from birds which have been killed. Partridges and grouse, startled by the noise of the approaching train and whirling across the line, are occasionally killed, and fall either on the engine or between the tracks.

PIONEERS AND OLD RELIABLE —O—

Face Bleach.

MRS. GRAHAM'S

Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream.

It is not a cosmetic in the sense in which that term is popularly used, but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, smooth, clear velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sunburn and freckles, and black heads, will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than does soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissue and those prevent the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of the skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old ought to use it, as it gives a most youthful appearance to any lady, and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1.00, ask your druggists for it.

SAMPLE BOTTLE mailed free to any lady on receipt of 10 cents in stamps to pay for postage and packing. Lady Agents wanted.

AMERICAN Trotting Association Rules to govern.
No nominations or entrance money will be received for any horse not owned in the territory six months prior to the 27th day of December, 1891.
All trotting and racing in harness, three or more horses to enter, and two to start.
Nominations for trotting and racing close December 1st, one-half of the entrance money payable when horse is nominated; balance on or before December 27th, 1891.
Three or more horses to enter, and two to start.
Nominations for running close December 15th, 1891; one-half entrance money to accompany nominations, and balance on or before December 27th, 1891. Three or more to enter and three to start.

The Jockey Club reserves the right to hold entrance and start a race with a less number, or to declare races off when there are less than three to start; also to trot heats of any two races alternately, or to call a special race between heats, or to change the date of races.

For a walk over in any race, a horse is entitled to its own entrance fee and one-half from the other paid up entries of the said race, and to added money.

A horse winning a race is entitled to the first money only, except in distancing the field; then to first and third money.

Stakes divided into three moneys, sixty per cent to the first, thirty to the second and ten to the third.

The above conditions shall apply to all races, except race No. 11, which is provided for under the following special condition.

Two or more to enter, and two to start. The first horse shall receive all entrance money, and the second horse the added money.

A walk over shall receive all entrance money and no added money.

Races commence at 1 o'clock sharp each day. The Jockey Club reserves the right to postpone races on account of bad weather.

Building and Loan Association.

ORGANIZED NOVEMBER, 1889.

THE PHOENIX
Building & Loan Association.A Purely Local Association Managed by
Some of Our Best Business Men,

Two years successful operation has proven it a success. 9 per cent. dividends have been made every six months, which enables it to mature its stock in six and one-half years.

The best investment for the laboring man and woman desiring to lay aside a portion of their earnings, where it is absolutely safe and earning the largest returns; equally a good investment for the man of means wishing a sure investment. The best place to borrow money to build or buy a home; you pay no more than you now pay for rent, and have a home paid for in six and one-half years.

Managed upon the most economical plan; no officer receives compensation except the secretary; no part of the monthly payments used for expenses.

The five series of stock issued November 1st. Persons desiring stock or loans or any information regarding the Association, should call upon the secretary
